ORGANIZATIONAL HISTORY

The Warren County Home Economists in Home and Community formed in 1955 in Bowling Green, Kentucky. The object of the organization as stated in its by-laws is three-fold: Section 1. The object of this organization shall be to provide opportunities for home economists and undergraduates in Home Economics who are either full-time homemakers or homemakers who combine homemaking with a gainful occupation outside their homes to cooperate in the attainment of the well-being of individuals and of families, the improvement of homes and the preservation of values significant in home life. Section 2. The object shall also be to work toward fulfilling the program of the American Home Economics Association and the state association. Section 3. Specifically our aims are: 1) to continue interest in the field of home economics, 2) to promote friendships and 3) to assist and promote programs which are designed for social betterment.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection includes yearbooks (Folder 2-4), although a number of years are missing. Yearbooks typically include a list of programs for the year, the roster of officers, and a directory of members. Folder 5 includes programs from the organization's annual meetings. These programs include the agenda for the evening, speaker names and topics, and a menu; sometimes they will include recipes for menu items. Many of these meetings were shared with a sister group in Logan County, Kentucky. Folder 6 includes a small amount of correspondence and a few news clippings.
